“Applications for licences

An application must be made in writing to the Licensing Committee of the Magisterial District in your area at least 21 days before the date of the licencing session. The Notice of Application must be lodged with the (1) Police Service; (2) Fire Service; (3) Ministry of Health; and (4) Customs & Excise Division. Approval from the Town & Country Department for the use of the premises for the sale of alcohol must be obtained, before making such an application. A floor plan of the premises must also accompany such applications.

The various agencies (health, fire, customs) each have their own requirements for various types of licences, including adequate water and drainage, proper washroom facilities, working fire extinguishers, seating accommodations, clearly labelled exits and storage rooms. Representatives from these agencies visit the premises and submit a report on their findings to the court. The applicant or his attorney-at-law attends court on the hearing of the application at the relevant session.

At the hearing, any one is entitled to object to the grant, renewal or transfer of a licence and may appear in person or through an attorney-at-law. People who are found to be selling alcohol without a licence are liable to a fine and/or imprisonment.”
